
Putty Brut 2116

Product Type

Putty Brut 2116 is an alkali resistance waterborne later putty for sealing fair faces, concrete and plastered walls and ceilings. It seals - off new walls and ceilings as well as old painted surfaces, thus leaving a neat surface for painting.

Areas of Use

Plaster putty brut 2116 can be used on exterior surfaces by applying it up to 10 mm per coat, using an undercoat in - between layers.

Specific Charasteristic

Putty Brut 2116 is resistant to humidity, easy to sand, gives a homogeny sanded surface.

Technical Data

Colors: Content color

Drying Time: 3 hours

Weight: 1.40 gr / cm³

Curing: Physical Evaporation

Solvent: water

Coverage: 20 - 18 m² / drum @ mm thickness depending on the surface textured and porosity.

Usage Instruction

Pretreatment:

Pretreatment

Clean all surface from grease, oil and foreign matters which can prevent adhesion.

Application:

Drum 28 kg.

Apply the paint by using spraying or knifing.

Cleaning:

Clean tools with water immediately after usage.